NOTICES.

The branches taught in the Vermont Academy of Medicine, are,—1st. Chemistry and Natural History: 2d. The outlines of Natural Philosophy: 3d. Anatomy and Physiology: 4th. Surgery, Obstetrics, and the Diseases of Women and Children: 5th. Materia Medica and Pharmacy: 6th. Theory and Practice of Medicine: 7th. Medical Jurisprudence.

The course of instruction commences at the Medical College in Castleton, on the first Thursday of September annually, and continues fifteen weeks. There are five Lectures daily, through the whole term, and occasionally six. The matriculation fee, is $3; the fee for all the courses, $40; and the graduation fee, $12.

To be entitled to a degree, the candidate must have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and have sustained a good moral character—must have studied the different branches of medicine, either in some medical institution, or with some respectable physician and surgeon, for at least three years, including the lecture terms—must have diligently attended two full courses of lectures, on all the several branches, either at this or some other incorporated institution, the last of which must have been at this—must have passed a satisfactory examination before the Faculty, and Delegates from the Vermont Medical Society, and have delivered and defended a written dissertation on some medical subject, to the approbation of the Faculty and Delegates—must have obtained certificates from the Treasurer, that he has paid into the treasury the graduation fee, and either paid, or secured to be paid, the prescribed lecture fees.

Having complied with these terms, the candidate shall be entitled to the degree of Doctor of Medicine, unless some sufficient reason appears, why he should not be admitted to such honour; and said degree shall be conferred, either at the annual Commencement of the Vermont Academy in Castleton, or at that of Middlebury College, at the choice of the candidate.

In this Institution, medical instruction is continued through the year; and beside the Lecture Term, there are two Reading Sessions of fifteen weeks each,—the first commencing the first Monday in January, and the second, the first Wednesday in May. Fees, $12 per term.

During the reading sessions, recitations and examinations, with occasional Lectures, will be regularly attended to.

Students will have the use of a large and well selected library, reading rooms and furniture, free of expense, not only in the terms of reading, but during the course of lectures, and vacations, with an opportunity to see as much practice in physic and surgery, as is deemed important, previous to entering on the duties of the profession.

☞ The price of board in Castleton, including room-rent, fuel, and washing, varies from $1,25 to $2,00 per week.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

To be admitted to the Freshmen Class, the candidate must be thoroughly acquainted with the grammar of the Latin and Greek languages, and be able to construe and parse any portion of the following books, viz:—Virgil, the Greek Testament, Cicero's Select Orations, and Dalzel's Collectanea Græca Minora or Jacobs' Greek Reader. He must likewise be able to translate English into Latin correctly; and possess a knowledge of Geography and Arithmetick, including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, with the doctrine of Roots and Powers.

N. B. The time appointed for examination, is the day preceding the annual Commencement. Applicants from a distance, however, may be examined at the close of the ensuing vacation.

For admission to an advanced standing, the candidate, in addition to the requisites for the Freshmen Class, must be acquainted with the studies pursued by the Class, which he wishes to join.

It is desirable that those youth who are studying with a view to enter this College, should use the particular books here prescribed. In extraordinary cases, however, an equivalent knowledge of other classicks will be admitted as a substitute for partial deficiences.

No scholar from another College can be admitted without examination; nor can any such applicant be admitted to examination, without producing from the presiding officer, a certificate of his good standing and regular dismission.

N. B. In all cases, a bond for the payment of the College bills, is required.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION AND STUDY.

FOR THE FRESHMEN.

First Term.—Sallust, Cicero de Officiis, Murray's English Grammar, Arithmetick reviewed, and a portion of Dalzel's Collectanea Græca Majora.

Second Term.—Græca Majora continued, Cicero de Amicitia and Senectute, Jamieson's Rhetorick, Livy, and Day's Algebra.

Third Term.—Græca Majora continued, Livy continued, Day's Algebra concluded, and Priestley's Lectures; with a review of preceding studies.

Through the Year.—A portion of the Greek Testament, on Monday morning; written translations from Latin or Greek into English, or from English into Latin, once in two weeks; and declamations once in two weeks.

SOPHOMORES.

First Term.—Horace, Playfair's Euclid, and Morse's Geography.

Second Term.—Horace continued, Græca Majora continued, and Day's Trigonometry, and Mensuration of Superfices and Solids.

Third Term.—Græca Majora continued through the first volume; Tacitus, Hedge's Logick, and Day's Mensuration of Heights and Distances, Navigation and Surveying; with a review of preceding studies.

Through the Year.—A portion of the Greek Testament on Monday morning; written translations from the Latin and Greek Classicks, English compositions and declamations.

JUNIORS.

First Term.—Tacitus continued; Græca Majora, second volume; Dutton's Spherical Trigonometry and Conick Sections, and Enfield's Natural Philosophy.

Second Term.—Cicero de Oratore, Græca Majora continued, Enfield's Natural Philosophy concluded.

Third Term.—De Oratore continued, Græca Majora concluded, Enfield's Astronomy, Vince's Fluctions, and Paley's Natural Theology, with a review of preceding studies.

Through the Year.—Greek Testament Monday morning; frequent exercises in composition, forensick discussions and declamations.

SENIORS.

First Term.—Blair's Lectures, Paley's Moral Philosophy, Vattel's Law of Nations, and Locke on the Human Understanding.

Second Term.—Stewart's Elements of the Philosophy of the Human Mind, Brown's Lectures, and Butler's Analogy.

Third Term.—Brown's Lectures continued, and Paley' View of the Evidences of Christianity, with a review of preceeding studies.

Through the Year.—On Monday morning, a portion of the Greek Testament; the Hebrew language once a week: frequent exercises in declamation, composition and forensick discussions.

N. B. In addition to the exercises in Elocution before the respective instructors of each class; the Senior Class in succession, (four each week) declaim before the whole College, after evening prayers; and twelve (four from each of the three lower classes) speak on every Wednesday afternoon.

EXAMINATIONS.—All the classes are carefully examined twice a year, before the whole Faculty, a Committee of the Corporation and such other literary gentlemen as are disposed to attend.

EXHIBITIONS.—One for the Sophomore class, on the day preceding the spring vacation; one for the Junior class, on the last Wednesday in November; and one for the Senior class on the evening of the same day.

VACATIONS.—The first, four weeks from Commencement; the second, seven weeks from the first Wednesday in January; the third, two weeks from the third Wednesday in May.

COMMENCEMENT.—On the third Wednesday in August.

ANNUAL EXPENSES.

Tuition, $5 per quarter, - - - - - - - -	$20
Room Rent, $1,50, - - - - - - - - - -	6
Repairs and other incidental charges, about $1,50,	6
	$32

As the students board in private families, the price of board varies from $1 to $1,50 per week.

To prevent unnecessary expenses, as well as for other important purposes, it is recommended, that every student from a distance, especially if young, should be placed under the particular patronage of some gentleman in Middlebury, who will attend to the appropriation of his money.
